BLOOMINGTON R. 1

Dear Sentinel and readers: Will drop you a few lines as I have not seen any news from this section lately.

Health is good, and the farmers are busy at planting corn. Ely Flatt visited his father Sunday.

Claude Jackson and family spent Sunday with Red Jackson.

Hello, Jim Jackson and wife of Wynona, Okla., how are you standing the time? Fine I hope.

Garland Jackson of Gainesboro, let us know how things are going down your way.

Troy Jackson has been visiting his brother, Claude, for the past few days.

Hello, John Flatt of Pettit, Okla. Do you remember the 13 day of October, down at the river?

Aunt Leeann Pippen is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. V. Jackson.

Hello aunt Julia Jackson, how is everybody in Oklahoma?

A large crowd visited Cummins Falls, Sunday.

Vernia West visited John Chesney, Saturday night.

As news is scarce I will close, and if this is lucky enough to escape the waste basket I will write again.

Dee Jackson.

QUARLES-WHITAKER.

Miss Roselea Whitaker on Sunday, May 1, became the bride of Kirk Quarles, the ceremony being performed at the parsonage by Rev. K. A. Early, the pastor, in the presence of a few close friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Whitaker, of the Roaring river section. She has had charge of the dress-goods department of Draper & Draper Co., for the past eighteen months, and her personal magnetism and lovely disposition have endeared her to the entire community.

The groom is a promising young farmer and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Grundy Quarles of Whitleyville, where they will reside for the present.

MEADOWS-GAINES

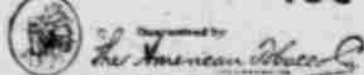

Miss Rosa Gaines, the young and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Gaines of near Whitleyville, and Ernest Meadows, were quietly married Sunday, Elder J. B. Dudley, uncle of the groom, officiated in the presence of a few friends.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Meadows of Freestate. Both have a wide circle of friends to be interested in their marriage.

Dr. S. B. Fowler of Hendersonville, after spending several days with friends here returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Montgomery and children, spent Wednesday with R. L. Meadows and family of Jennings creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gaines and daughter, Mary Ferguson, and neice, Floy Johnson, have gone to Sumner county to visit relatives.

P. H. and J. E. Smith of Salt Lick, visited the editors Friday. They have recently sold their stock of merchandise to Mullinax & Son.

W. B. Stone of Knoxville, representing Davis Mfg. Co., was in Gainesboro this week. Mr. Stone formerly lived in Smith county.

Ernest McDearman has accepted a position in the department store of Draper & Draper Co., and will be pleased to have you visit him when convenient.

Rev. J. D. Gunn of Sparta, will preach at the Christian church here Saturday night and Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., May 7th and 8. Tell your friends and come.

J. Bayless Anderson says the roads leading from here to the heart of White's Bend are in pretty good shape, and he ought to know. And that's about the only road Mr. Anderson seems to be interested in. Now, why is it so?

A. M. Holland, the popular Belknap man, has purchased a Ford roadster of the local Ford agents, and says he is going after business in a business way. Fred Tardy, Jr., is his chauffeur until he learns the art of handling it.

The Gentry Produce Co. of Cookeville, has opened up a branch house on the east side of the square. H. M. Haile of this place has charge of the business and will buy all kinds of country produce. Look him up when you have anything to sell in his line.

The damage done by the recent fire, to the pretty residence of B. C. Butler was promptly and satisfactorily adjusted by Myers and Gardenhire, insurance men of Carthage, who were here last Friday in the interest of their business.

Revenue commissioners Williams, Tyler and Gailbreath were here Sunday. They had been transacting business near Union Hill, Clay county, where they destroyed two large distillery outfits and made several arrests.

W. E. Smith of Cookeville, R-1, is visiting his son, Robert Smith, near Gainesboro. Uncle Bill is 86 years old and is enjoying splendid health. He takes the Sentinel and says he enjoys reading it more than he does the daily papers. His name has been on our mailing list for a number of years.

Your attention is called to the big anniversary sale of Draper & Darper Co., on page 3. Read it and then go immediately to the store and get picking choice of these wonderful bargains. Don't wait until the cream is all gone but go now. Fair warning.

LUCKY STRIKE cigarette

Misses Lillie Brown Gist and Leona Roberts, who were operated on last Friday morning at St. Thomas hospital for chronic appendicitis, are getting along splendidly, but will have to remain in the hospital several more days. Their many friends will be glad to know they are getting along so nicely and are hoping to soon see them back home.

DRAPER & DRAPER CO. BUYS BIG BILL OF SHOES.

J. T. Dollard, traveling salesman for Friedman-Shelby Shoe Co. called on our local merchants Draper & Draper Co. last week and finding their stock extremely low, got busy and sold them 206 dozen pairs of Friedman-Shelby's (ALL LEATHER) SHOES. All bought at the new reduced prices. Shipment of these shoes began May 5.

BILL WHITSON SERIOUSLY HURT.

Bill Whitson, an aged citizen of Red Boiling Springs, happened to a very painful accident here Wednesday afternoon, when his horse stumbled and fell. Mr. Whitson was thrown head first to the hard ground, inflicting a long gash over his left eye. He was hurriedly carried to the offices of Dr. R. C. Gaw, where his wound was given a temporary dressing. An examination showed a fracture of the skull, and Mr. Whitson was advised to go immediately to Nashville. Rev. K. A. Early, local pastor, volunteered his services and car, and with the assistance of John Gibson, who also volunteered to go, carried the old gentleman to Cookeville, where he took the first train for Nashville. He stood the trip to Cookeville fine and was resting well last report.

Mr. Whitson was en route home from a visit to relatives in Putnam county, and was passing the Christian church when the accident occurred. He is well known over the county and his friends will regret to learn of his misfortune.

PAPER LATE.

The paper is late on account illness in our families first of the week. Our typist, Miss Hawkins, is off duty on account the illness of her mother. All are improving and we hope to be able to shove out the news on time next week.

The light of reason hasn't much chance to shine through the darkness of prejudice.

You may know your own business, as you proudly say, but you be astonished to know that there are those who really know a food deal more about it than you, and are not saying so.

If's your enemies that make you hump. If you had nothing but friends you'd grow fat and lazy and wouldn't be of enough consequence in the community to get an invitation to a precinct meeting.

In the spring a married man fancy should lightly turn to thoughts of next winter's coal.

Then there is the kind of man who is willing to kill the goose that lays the golden eggs merely because he doesn't like the goose.

Just because you think the world is your oyster, don't swallow everything the world tells you.

The meekest man in the congregation likes to think he would be a terror if he ever "got started."

No woman can understand how other men's can afford to dress the way they do, and she feels as sorry for other woman's husbands as the husbands do.
